XV.- PLAYER CONDUCT

All participants are subject to the Laws of Chess and shall behave at all times during the tournament in accordance with the statutes of the CCA and FIDE and the highest principles of sportsmanship.

Players are expected to attend all official events approved by the CCA and the event organization, including the opening and closing ceremonies and the technical meeting. If necessary, the Chief Arbiter may call additional technical meetings.

Players are expected to cooperate with the media and be available for brief interviews immediately after each game.

Players must comply with the requirements of the FIDE Regulations to maintain a dignified appearance at all times during the event.

XVI.- FAIR PLAY; ELECTRONIC EQUIPMENT

Fair play measures will be implemented according to FIDE anti-cheating guidelines, with the sole exception of move-recording devices. During the game, players are prohibited from carrying any electronic device in the playing venue and may not carry bags or backpacks.

Companions or spectators are not permitted to enter the playing hall 10 minutes after the round has started.

XVII.- APPEALS COMMITTEE

The CCA and the Organizer will appoint the chairperson and two (2) other members of the Appeals Committee, as well as two (2) alternates. All names will be announced no later than the start of the Technical Meeting and before the first round begins.

None of the three (3) members of the Appeals Committee may rule on a dispute involving a player from their own national chess federation. An alternate will take their place in such a case.

Only a player may file an appeal. All appeals must be submitted to the Appeals Committee in writing no more than one (1) hour after the end of the round or the moment the alleged infraction occurred

Each appeal must be accompanied by a deposit of USD 100 (one hundred US dollars). If the appeal is upheld, the deposit will be refunded. If the appeal is rejected, the deposit will not be returned.

The Appeals Committee may rule on the following matters:

- a) an appeal against an arbiter's decision,
- b) a complaint against a player's conduct,
- c) any other matters the Appeals Committee deems relevant

The written decision of the Appeals Committee is final.

XVIII.- PRIZES

The winner of each category of the Pan American Chess Championship Veteran & Senior 2026 earns the personal right to participate in the following year's World Championship (subject to FIDE rules).
